General Information

The General Information set out below is provided for your information only. It does not form part of the insurance contract with you, and is not part of the policy.

Nothing contained in the General Information imposes contractual obligations on you, or creates contractual rights. These are contained in the policy and any endorsement.

Claims made

The Management Liability and Professional Indemnity Sections of the policy operates on a "claims made and notified" basis. This means that the section covers you for claims as defined in the Management Liability or Professional Indemnity Section made against you and notified to us during the period of insurance.

The Management Liability and Professional Indemnity Sections do not provide cover in relation to:

- acts, errors or omissions actually or allegedly committed prior to the retroactive date of the policy (if such a date is specified);
- claims made after the expiry of the period of insurance even though the event giving rise to the claim may have occurred during the period of insurance;
- claims notified or arising out of facts or circumstances notified (or which ought reasonably to have been notified) under any previous policy;
- claims made, threatened or intimated against you prior to the commencement of the period of insurance;
- facts or circumstances of which you first became aware prior to the period of insurance, and which you knew or ought reasonably to have known had the potential to give rise to a claim under this policy section;
- claims arising out of circumstances noted on Your application for insurance for the current period of insurance or on any previous proposal.

Where you give notice in writing to us of any facts that might give rise to a claim against you as soon as reasonably practicable after you become aware of those facts but before the expiry of the period of insurance, provided the claim would otherwise be covered under the policy, you have rights under Section 40(3) of the Insurance Contracts Act 1984 (Cth) to be indemnified in respect of any claim subsequently made against you arising from those facts notwithstanding that the claim is made after the expiry of the period of insurance. Any such rights arise under the legislation only. The terms of the policy section and the effect of the policy section is that you are not covered for claims made against you after the expiry of the period of insurance.

Please note that the above may be affected by any defined discovery period where applicable which may extend time for notification of a claim as defined.

About this insurance

This is an important document. You should read it carefully before making a decision to purchase this insurance. It will help You to:

- decide whether this insurance will meet Your needs; and
- compare it with other products You may be considering.

Please note that any recommendation or opinion in this document is of a general nature only and does not take into account Your objectives, financial situation or needs.

You need to decide if this insurance is right for You and You should read all of the documents that make up the Policy to ensure You have the cover You need.

Our contract with You

Where We agree to enter into a Policy with the Insured it is a contract of insurance between Us and the Insured. The Policy consists of:

- this document which sets out the standard terms of Your cover and its limitations;
- the current Schedule issued by Us. The Schedule is a separate document, which shows the insurance details relevant to You. It may include additional terms, conditions and exclusions relevant to You that amend the standard terms of this document. Only those Sections shown as covered in Your Schedule are insured; and

- any other change to the terms of the Policy otherwise advised by Us in writing (such as an Endorsement or Supplementary PDS) before You enter into the Policy or where required or permitted by law. These written changes may vary or modify the above documents.

These are all important documents and should be carefully read together and kept in a safe place for future reference.

We reserve the right to change the terms of the Policy where permitted to do so by law.

Any new or replacement Schedule We may send the Insured, detailing changes to Your insurance or the Period of Insurance, will become the current Schedule, which You should carefully read and retain.

Understanding Your Policy and its important terms and conditions

To properly understand the significant features, benefits and risks of this insurance You need to carefully read:

- about each of the available cover types and benefits in the relevant Section of the Policy (the standard cover provided under each Section can be affected by the following);

- the rest of this “Introduction” section – this sets out how You apply for cover, the basis on which We insure You, the Duty of Disclosure You need to meet before We insure You, Our privacy information, Our dispute resolution procedures and other important information;
- the “General definitions” section – this sets out what We mean by certain words used in the Policy. These words begin with a capital letter throughout this document. Each Section may also contain definitions relevant to that Section of the Policy;
- the “General exclusions” section – this sets out the general exclusions and limits that apply to all covers and benefits;
- the “General terms and conditions” section – this sets out certain general rights and obligations that You and We have;
- all of the documents that make up the Policy, including the Schedule and any Supplementary PDSs or Endorsements or other written changes to the cover We issue You with before You enter into or renew the Policy or where required or permitted by law – these contain specific details relevant to You and can affect the cover.

Headings are provided for reference only and do not form part of Your Policy for interpretation purposes.

Applying for cover

When You apply by completing Our application process You need to provide the information We require to determine whether to issue a Policy and if so, on what terms, including (to the extent they are optional):

- the covers and benefits You want (including the property You wish to cover);
- the limits You want;
- the Period of Insurance You want;
- whether You want any third parties to be noted as having an interest;
- the Excess(es) that You want to contribute for certain claims;
- whether any standard terms need to be varied (this may be by way of an Endorsement).

Where We agree to issue a Policy, cover is provided on the basis:

- that You have paid or agreed to pay Us the Premium for the cover provided;
- of the verbal and/or written information provided by You which must have been given in accordance with Your Duty of Disclosure.

If You fail to comply with Your Duty of Disclosure, We may be entitled to refuse or reduce Our liability under the Policy in respect of a claim to the extent We are prejudiced by Your failure and/or We may cancel the Policy. If You have told Us something which is fraudulent, We also have the option of avoiding the Policy (i.e. treating it as if it never existed).

Your Duty of Disclosure and the consequences of non-disclosure, are provided under the heading “Your Duty of Disclosure”.

Your cooling off rights

A 14 day cooling off period applies to this insurance. So, if You decide You don’t want this Policy, You can cancel it up to 14 days from:

- the date We issue a new Policy to You, or
- the start date of a renewed Policy.

We’ll refund Your Premium in full, as long as You:

- haven’t made a claim, or
- don’t need to make a claim.

We may deduct government taxes or duties from your refund.

What is covered

Where We have entered into a Policy with You, We will insure You for:

- loss or Damage caused by one or more of the covered insured events; and
- the other covered benefits, as set out in the Policy occurring during the Period of Insurance.

Other persons may be entitled to cover, but only if specified as so entitled and limited only to the extent and interest specified.

Some words have special meanings

Certain words used in the Policy have special meanings. The “General definitions” section of this document on pages 11 to 14 contains such terms. In some cases, certain words may be given a special meaning in a particular Section of the Policy when used or in the other documents making up the Policy.

GST Notice

This policy has a GST provision in relation to premium and Our payment to You for claims. It may have an impact on how You determine the amount of insurance You need. Please read it carefully. Seek professional advice if You have any queries about GST and Your insurance.

Sums Insured

All monetary limits in this policy may be adjusted for GST in some circumstances (see below).

Claim settlements – Where We agree to pay

When We calculate the amount We will pay you, We will consider the following:

Acquisition of goods, services or repairs Where You are liable to pay an amount for GST in respect of an acquisition relevant to Your claim (such as services to repair a damaged item insured under the policy) We will pay for the GST amount.

We will pay the GST amount in addition to the sum insured/limit of indemnity or other limits shown in the policy or in the current schedule (unless We state GST is included in Sum Insured or Limit of Indemnity).

If your Sum Insured/Limit of Liability is not sufficient to cover Your loss, We will only pay the GST amount that relates to Our settlement of Your claim.

We will reduce the GST amount We pay for by the amount of any input tax credits to which You are or would be entitled.

Payment as compensation

Where We make a payment under this policy as compensation instead of payment for a relevant acquisition, We will reduce the amount of the payment by the amount of any input tax credit that You would have been entitled to had the payment been applied to a relevant acquisition.

Where the Policy insures business interruption, We will (where relevant) pay You on your claim by reference to the GST exclusive amount of any supply made by Your business that is relevant to Your claim.

Disclosure – Input tax credit entitlement

If You register, or are registered, for GST You are required to tell Us your entitlement to an input tax credit on Your premium. If You fail to disclose or understate Your entitlement, You may be liable for GST on a claim We may pay. This policy does not cover You for this GST liability, or for any fine, penalty or charge for which You may be liable.

Your obligation to comply with the Policy terms and conditions

You are required to comply with the terms and conditions of the Policy. Please remember that if You do not comply with any term or condition, We may (to the extent permitted by law) decline or reduce any claim payment to the extent We are prejudiced by Your non-compliance and/or cancel Your Policy.

If more than one person is insured under the Policy, a failure or wrongful action by one of those persons may adversely affect the rights of any other person insured under the Policy.

How to make a claim

If You need to make a claim under the Policy, please refer to "Claims procedure and conditions" from pages 17 to 18.

How We settle claims

Where We agree to reinstate or replace Damaged property, We will replace Your property with new goods or repair it using new materials where reasonably possible. If replacement of goods is not possible due to obsolete materials, heritage goods or other circumstances which make replacement impossible or uneconomical, We may instead cash settle. If You ask for a cash settlement instead, We will deduct an amount for wear, tear and depreciation. This amount depends on the age of the Damaged item and the expected useful life.

More details around how We settle claims are provided in this document under the Basis of Settlement sections within each Section.

How We calculate Your Premium

The amount of Your Premium is determined by taking a number of different matters into account. You can seek a quote at any time.

It is important for You to know in particular that the Premium varies depending on the information We receive from You about the risk to be covered by Us. The higher the risk is (e.g. high claims experience), the higher the Premium will be. Based on Our experience and expertise as an insurer, We decide what factors increase Our risk and how they should impact on the Premium.

We calculate Your Premium on the basis of information that We receive from You when You apply for the insurance.

Some factors impacting Premiums include:

- Your nominated Sum Insured;
- where Your Business is situated;
- the materials used in the construction of Your Building(s);
- the nature of Your Business;
- security measures used for Your Property Insured (e.g. alarms, deadlocks); and
- any additional Excess You nominate to pay above Our basic Excess. This means that when You purchase a Policy You may be able to take a higher Excess in the event of a claim, which will reduce the cost of Your Premium. If You are interested in this, You should ask Your intermediary or Us to supply You with quotes based on differing amounts of Excess(es).

Your Premium also includes amounts that take into account Our obligation to pay any relevant compulsory government charges, taxes or levies (e.g. Stamp Duty, GST, Emergency and Fire Services Levy) in relation to the Policy. These amounts will be set out separately on Your Schedule as part of the total Premium payable.

In cases where We are required to pay an estimated amount (e.g. for Fire Services Levies) based on criteria set by the Government, We allocate to the Policy Our estimate of the amount We will be required to pay. We may over or under recover in any particular year but We will not adjust Your Premium because of this. You can ask Us for more details if You wish.

Minimum premiums prior to charges may apply. In some cases, discounts may apply if You meet certain criteria We set. Any discounts/entitlements only apply to the extent any minimum premium is not reached. If You are eligible for more than one, We also apply each of them in a predetermined order to the Premium (excluding taxes and government charges) as reduced by any prior applied discounts/entitlements. Any discounts will be applied to the base premium calculated prior to any taxes being added.

When You apply for this insurance, You will be advised of the total Premium amount payable, when it needs to be paid and how it can be paid. This amount will be set out in the Schedule, which will be sent to You after You enter into the Policy. If You fail to pay We may cancel the Policy in accordance with the process set out in the "Cancellation rights" section. Special rights and obligations apply to instalment Premium payments as set out below.

Paying Your Premium

You must pay Your Premium by the due date. If We do not receive Your Premium by this date or Your payment is dishonoured, We may be entitled to reduce or refuse to pay a claim and cancel the Policy in accordance with the process set out in the "Cancellation rights" section.

Premium payment by direct debit

You may have chosen to pay the Premium for this insurance by direct debit from a financial institution holding Your account. If You choose this option, the financial institution may dishonour the direct debit payment due to lack of funds in Your account. If this occurs, We will charge You for any direct and indirect costs which We incur arising from the payment being dishonoured.

Instalments

If You pay Your Premium by way of instalments, You must ensure that they are paid on time. We will notify You if an instalment has not been paid and We will try to deduct the overdue amount along with Your next regular payment. If the next attempt to deduct the outstanding amount fails, We will cancel Your Policy for non payment. We will send You a notice advising you of cancellation, and cancellation will be effective 14 days from the date on this notice. Refer to the "General terms and conditions" section for important details on Your and Our rights and obligations.

Renewal procedure

Before the Policy expires We will advise You whether We intend to offer renewal and if so on what terms. This document also applies for any offer of renewal We may make, unless We tell You otherwise.

It is important that You check the terms of any renewal offer before renewing to satisfy Yourself that the details are correct. In particular, check the Sum Insured amounts and Excess(es) applicable and to ensure the levels of cover are appropriate for You.

Please note that You need to comply with Your Duty of Disclosure before each renewal (see below).

Each renewal is a separate Policy, not an extension of the prior Policy.

Automatic Renewal

Where You pay Your Premium by instalments, or have otherwise authorised Us to deduct Your Premium by direct debit to Your nominated to Your nominated account/credit card, We will send You a renewal notice at least 14 days prior to the expiry of the Policy advising if We are prepared to offer or negotiate renewal, and on what terms and whether We will automatically renew the Policy or not.

Where You receive a renewal offer, You must tell Us if the information contained in it is incorrect or incomplete and You must comply with Your "Duty of Disclosure". If You do not, We may reduce or refuse to pay a claim or cancel the renewed Policy.

If nothing needs to be disclosed and You are happy with the renewal offer terms and conditions, You do not have to do anything as We will automatically renew based on those terms and conditions and deduct/charge the new renewal Premium from Your nominated account/credit card, unless You tell Us not to.

Should You not wish to take up the renewal offer You must contact Us prior to the renewal to advise Us. Each renewal is a separate Policy, not an extension of the prior Policy.

Your Duty of Disclosure

Before You enter into a contract of insurance with Us, You have a duty under the Insurance Contracts Act 1984 to disclose to Us every matter that You know, or could reasonably be expected to know, is relevant to Our decision whether to accept the risk of the insurance and, if so, on what terms.

You have the same duty to disclose those matters to Us before You renew, extend, vary or reinstate the contract. This Duty of Disclosure applies until the contract is entered into (or renewed, extended, varied or reinstated as applicable).

Your duty however does not require disclosure of any matter:

- that diminishes the risk to be undertaken by Us; or
- that is of common knowledge; or
- that We know or, in the ordinary course of Our business as an insurer, ought to know; or
- as to which compliance with Your duty is waived by Us.

Non-disclosure

If You fail to comply with Your Duty of Disclosure, We may be entitled to reduce Our liability under the contract in respect of a claim, cancel the contract or both.

If Your non-disclosure is fraudulent, We may also have the option of avoiding the contract from its beginning.

When the Policy has been arranged through an intermediary, remuneration (such as commission) is payable by Us to them for arranging the insurance. You can ask them or Us for more information.

We have determined that the Policy (or part of it) is a Policy to which the Terrorism and Cyclone Insurance Act 2003 applies.

We may elect to reinsure part or all of Our liability under the Act with the Commonwealth Government reinsurer, the Australian Reinsurance Pool Corporation (ARPC).

As a consequence, We may be required to pay a premium to ARPC and that amount (together with the cost of that part of the cover provided by Us and administrative costs associated with the legislation) is reflected in the Premium charged to You. As with any other part of the Premium, it is subject to government taxes and charges such as GST, Stamp Duty and where applicable, Fire Service Levy.

For further information contact Us or Your intermediary.

All persons (including third party beneficiaries) entitled to claim under the Policy are bound by and comply with the terms and conditions of the Policy.

10. Non-imputation

Where this insurance is arranged in joint names, it is hereby declared and agreed that:

- a. each party consisting of You shall be covered as if it made its own Proposal for this insurance;
- b. any declaration, statement or representation made in any Proposal shall be construed as a separate declaration, statement or representation by each party consisting of You;
- c. any knowledge possessed by any party consisting of You shall not be imputed to the other.

However, the above does not have the effect of applying the Sum Insured, Limit of Indemnity and sub-limits of liability individually to each such insured.

11. Non-payment of Premium by instalments – right to refuse a claim

Where You pay Your Premium by instalments, You must ensure that they are paid on time. We will notify You if an instalment has not been paid and We will try to deduct the overdue amount along with Your next regular payment. If the next attempt to deduct the outstanding amount fails, We will cancel Your Policy for non-payment. We will send You a notice advising You of cancellation, and cancellation will be effective 14 days from the date on this notice.

12. Authorisation and Notifications

Any person who may be insured under the Policy should consider obtaining advice as to whether the benefits are appropriate or useful for their personal needs from a person who is licensed to give such advice. No advice is provided by Us or the Insured that the benefits are appropriate or useful for any person's needs. Nothing prevents such persons from entering into other arrangements regarding insurance.

We will send all notices in relation to the Policy to:

- a. the Insured's nominated insurance intermediary until We received written notice to the contrary from the Insured; or
- b. if there is no nominated intermediary, the Insured, acting on the behalf of You.

Any notice We give the Insured will be in writing, and it will be effective:

- a. if it is delivered to the Insured or their agent personally; or
- b. if it is delivered or sent to the Insured's address or the Insured's Agent's address last known to Us.

It is important for the Insured to tell Us of any change of address as soon as possible.

Each event will be considered to have commenced on the first happening of Damage, not within the period of any previous event.

14. Other Insurance and Contribution

When a claim is made under the Policy that may also be recoverable under another policy or policies, You agree to provide Us with details of such policies that may pay or partially pay that claim, so that We may seek contribution.

15. Payment of Excess

You must pay the Excess amount as a contribution to Your claim in accordance with the terms and conditions applicable to the Section of Your Policy under which You are claiming. If We settle a claim by cash settlement We will deduct the Excess from the amount We pay You.

Should a single event result in You claiming under more than one Section of Your Policy, then only the single highest Excess will apply to all claims that arise out of the one event.

Provided that this shall not apply to claims arising from loss or Damage claimable under the optional benefit "Deterioration of Stock" under the Machinery Breakdown Section.

Only one Excess will apply to all Damage resulting from Flood, earthquake, subterranean fire, volcanic eruption, bushfire, storm, hail or rainwater that is continuous, is due to the same general conditions, and occurs within a 72-hour period from the first happening of Damage.

In the event of Damage insured under Material Damage Section, Business Interruption Section, Theft Section, Money Section, Glass Section and General Property Section of the Policy, the amount by which the Sum Insured or Limit of Indemnity is reduced as a consequence of the loss or Damage will be automatically reinstated from the date of loss or Damage provided that:

19. Single Occurrence

We will not pay for loss or Damage to Property Insured covered by the Policy under more than one Section of the Policy in respect of the same item and occurrence unless a relevant insured amount has been paid out in full and You have not been fully indemnified, less any applicable Excess, for the loss or Damage in which case We will only pay up to the amount that We reasonably determine indemnifies You for the loss or Damage subject to the terms, conditions, limits and exclusions of each Section of the Policy.

20. Waiver of subrogation rights

We will not be liable to pay any benefits under the Policy for loss, Damage or liability if You agree or have agreed to limit or exclude any right of recovery against any third party to the extent that Your loss would have been recoverable from that person but for the agreement. However:

21. Economic Sanctions

Notwithstanding anything contained in this Policy to the contrary, We shall not be liable to provide any cover or benefit or pay any claim where the provision of cover or benefit or payment of claim would constitute a breach of any trade or economic sanction, embargo, prohibition or restriction imposed by any of the following: United Nations, United States of America, Australia, European Union, United Kingdom, or New Zealand, or any other applicable national trade or economic sanctions, laws or regulations. This clause shall apply where such geographical location, provision of goods, services or other reasons shall contravene such sanction, embargo, prohibition or restriction.

All causally connected or interrelated advices, acts, errors or omissions shall be deemed to jointly constitute a single advice, act, error or omission. If a single act, error or omission gives rise to more than one Claim, all such Claims shall jointly constitute one Claim for the purposes of this Section and only one Excess and one Limit of Indemnity shall be applicable for such Claim.

Defence Costs are payable in addition to the Limit of Indemnity. However, the maximum amount payable by Us under the Section in respect of Defence Costs is the equivalent of the Limit of Indemnity.

In the event that the amount paid by You or an Insured Person or on Your or an Insured Person's behalf to dispose of a Claim exceeds the Limit of Indemnity for any one Claim, then this Section shall only cover the same proportion of Defence Costs as this Section's Limit of Indemnity for any one Claim bears to the total amount paid to dispose of the Claim (exclusive of Defence Costs).

If We have paid or advanced Defence Costs in excess of this proportion, You or an Insured Person must reimburse Us for such Defence Costs.

Where We consider that the Limit of Indemnity is likely to be exhausted by the payment of amounts payable under this Section, We may, in Our absolute discretion, elect to pay You or an Insured Person the amount which exhausts the Limit of Indemnity. If We elect to do this, We shall have no further obligation to pay any further Defence Costs.

Where a Claim is made against more than one of You or Insured Persons under this Section, this shall not operate to increase the total amount payable by Us under this Section.

Unless otherwise stated in this Section:

- a. all amounts payable by Us under this Section shall be inclusive of the Limit of Indemnity any one Claim and not in addition to the Limit of Indemnity any one Claim;
- b. all amounts paid by Us under this Section shall erode the aggregate Limit of Indemnity;
- c. all sub-limits of indemnity, where provided in this Section, are inclusive of the Limit of Indemnity any one Claim and not in addition to the Limit of Indemnity any one Claim; and
- d. if the Schedule provides for a Limit of Indemnity that is higher in the aggregate than for any one Claim, then references in this Section to the Limit of Indemnity shall only be in respect of the Limit of Indemnity for any one Claim.

Additional payments applicable to this Section

We agree to pay any Defence Costs up to the amount specified above:

- a. that We incur; or
- b. that You or an Insured Person incur with Our written consent. Please contact Us to confirm approval for these costs.

We will advance Defence Costs covered by the Policy promptly after detailed invoices for those costs are received by Us. However, any Defence Costs that are actually paid shall be repayable to Us by You in the event and to the extent that it is determined under the Policy that You or an Insured Person were not entitled to a payment of Defence Costs.

Exclusion 5. "Fraud and Dishonesty" will not apply until the conduct is established by final adjudication of a judicial or arbitral tribunal or by a written admission by You or an Insured Person.

What happens after You make a claim

1. Excess

You must pay the Excess as a contribution to Your claim under this Section unless We state an Excess does not apply. The payment of an Excess helps to keep the cost of Your Premium down by reducing the number of small claims. If We settle Your claim by cash settlement We will deduct the Excess from the amount We pay You. In other circumstances, You may need to pay the Excess as a contribution to the repair or replacement.

There are different types of Excess which may apply to You or the driver of Your Vehicle at the time of the claim.

These are:

a. Basic Excess

The basic Excess is the first amount You must pay as a contribution to each claim. The amount of the basic Excess will be shown on Your Schedule beside the heading "Basic Excess".

b. Additional Excesses

If You make a claim for an Accident when Your Vehicle was being driven by or was in the charge of a driver:

- i. up to the age of 21 years,

- ii. theft;

- iii. hail, storm or Flood Damage;
- iv. Malicious Damage; or
- v. Damage to Your Vehicle while parked.

c. Tipping Excess

An additional Excess of $1,000 will apply if Your Vehicle is a rigid body tipper or a tipping Trailer and the event which gives rise to a claim occurs whilst the tipping hoist is fully or partially elevated.

2. Faultless Excess

You will not be required to pay the basic or additional Excess if:

- a. the Accident which gave rise to the claim was the fault of the driver of the other vehicle; and
- b. You can supply:
 - i. the name and address of that driver; and
 - ii. the registration number of the other vehicle; or

4. Choice of repairer

We can assist You in selecting a suitable repairer to repair the Damage to Your Vehicle; however You also have the right to choose Your own repairer. - a. authorise the repairs at Your repairer of choice;
- b. pay You the reasonable cost of repairing Your Vehicle; or
- c. move Your Vehicle to a repairer We both agree will repair Your Vehicle. In the instance that We both agree to move Your Vehicle We will provide You with a rental vehicle for up to 3 days in addition to any other benefit provided under Your Policy.

We will work closely with the repairer to strive to achieve the best repair outcome for You.

5. Authorising repairs

- a. Where You have cover under Part A of this Section You may only authorise emergency repairs as detailed under Additional benefits applicable to Part A of this Section – e. Emergency repairs”. You cannot authorise further repairs to Your Vehicle without Our prior consent. Please contact Us to confirm approval for any further repairs to Your Vehicle.
- b. Before We make a decision regarding Your claim and repairs to Your Vehicle, We may need to inspect Your Vehicle. A motor vehicle assessor will be appointed by Us. We or Our assessor will make the necessary arrangements with You.

6. Parts, extras and accessories

If We are unable to repair the part We use new, recycled or reconditioned parts that meet the requirements of Australian Design Rules (ADR). If such parts are not available or appropriate, parts from alternative distribution channels may be used.

We will not pay any amount greater than the maker’s last list price in Australia (together with a reasonable charge for fitting) for the supply of any part, extra or accessory.

In the event that any part, extra or accessory cannot be obtained immediately, We may choose (acting reasonably) to pay You the value of the part, extra or accessory (together with a reasonable charge for fitting) rather than supply the part, extra or accessory.

7. Sublet repairs

If Your Vehicle requires Us to engage the services of a specific specialist repairer and/or supplier We may sublet that component to such repairer or supplier.

We will tell you what documents We reasonably require. The types of documents We ask for depend on the situation and can include:

- tax invoices for items bought or services used
- valuation, model and serial numbers
- credit card or bank statements
- photos
- registration documents
- hire vehicle agreements
- finance agreements.

We may compare information You give Us with a range of other sources – for example, auction or sale websites.

If You do not provide Us with this information, We may not pay Your claim or provide cover to the extent We are prejudiced by that failure.

If We have the right to recover any amount payable under the Policy from any other person, You must take reasonable steps to co-operate with Us in any action We may take.

10. Our rights of recovery

We have the right to recover from any person, in Your name, the amount of any claim paid under this Section and We have full discretion in the conduct, settlement or defence of any claim in Your name. If We recover more than the amount We have paid to You or on Your behalf, We will pay You the balance. We will act reasonably having regard to Your interests and will keep You informed if You ask Us to.

11. Salvage of Your Vehicle when it is a Total Loss

If Your Vehicle is a Total Loss and We have agreed to replace Your Vehicle or We pay the Market Value, Sum Insured or Agreed Value for Your Vehicle:

If Your Vehicle is a Total Loss and We have agreed to pay the Market Value, Sum Insured or Agreed Value for Your Vehicle:
